

TIRED OUT!

At this season nearly every one needs to use some tonic. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is the only one that is not injurious. It enriches the blood, invigorates the system, restores appetite, aids digestion, it does not blacken or injure the teeth, cause headache or produce constipation—other iron medicines do.

Dr. G. H. BINKLEY, a leading physician of Springfield, Ohio, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a thoroughly good medicine. I use it in my practice, and find its action excels all other forms of iron. In weakness, or a low condition of the system, Brown's Iron Bitters is usually a positive necessity. It is all that is claimed for it."

Dr. W. N. WATKINS, 189 Thirty-second Street, Georgetown, D. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the tonic of the age. Nothing better. It creates appetite, gives strength and improves digestion."

PRESIDENTIAL PARDONS.

ACTION TAKEN IN A NUMBER OF CASES BY MR. CLEVELAND.

Prominent Democrats Gathering at Washington to Hold a Conference on Revenue Reduction and Other Necessary Legislation—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The president has acted as follows upon the applications for the pardon of a number of convicted criminals. The most important case is that of Thomas Ballard, the notorious counterfeiter, who was sentenced January 21, 1875, to thirty years imprisonment in the Albany penitentiary for engraving and having in his possession counterfeit plates, notes, etc. The president has granted him a pardon.

In endorsing the application he says that the prisoner was supposed to be one of the most expert counterfeiters in the country. He has now been in prison equivalent to more than fifteen years, allowing the deduction he has secured for good behavior. He has grown to be an old man, broken down physically and mentally. His conduct has been such as to cause much interest to be felt in his case by many good citizens and officials connected with his conviction. His wife, who has clung to him with a true woman's devotion all these years, and who has almost worn herself out in her efforts to support and educate her daughter, just now reaching womanhood, pleads for her erring and penitent husband's release. There is a universal belief on the part of those acquainted with the case that the prisoner's reformation is complete, and that in no circumstances could this broken down man, whose mind is fast giving way with his body, be a menace to society if liberated. He is of the opinion that in this case the law has been fully vindicated.

Democratic Conference.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The Star said last night that Speaker Carlisle was expected in Washington before this time, and a good many members of the house, have come here with the idea of meeting him. The will case he is now trying, which has been postponed from time to time, has kept him in Kentucky. He is expected now on the 1st of July, or a few days later. His coming will the notice for the arrival of the leading members of the Democratic side of the house, who will meet him in conference here on the revenue question. They hope to make a general sounding of the party at this conference, or a series of conferences to be held, so as to come to some sort of conclusion as to what they will be able to do in the way of reducing the revenue.

They will be met at the very entrance of the subject with the fact that Mr. Randall still occupies his position and that he has not been idle for a while. He has talked, one at a time, with a good many members of congress whose sections are dissatisfied with the internal revenue system. It is thought when the conference with Mr. Carlisle is held there will be propositions coming from unexpected quarters having in view the repeal of the tobacco tax and a sort of combination internal revenue and the tariff reduction.

These conferences will be only preliminary to a party caucus, to be held about the time of the meeting of congress, when the disposition of the majority will be tested. The question of who will be the chairman of the ways and means committee is an important one. Upon it depend the prospects of an agreement on the revenue question. Mr. Mills, as second on the old committee, and an extreme tariff reformer, expects to succeed Mr. Morrison. He and Mr. Carlisle are close friends. The strongest rival of Mr. Mills for this position will be S. S. Cox, whose appointment will be urged by many on account of his not being such a stickler for the radical principles of free trade, and because he is more apt to act with diplomacy.

Cunning Japanese.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—An illustration of the cleverness and imitative powers of the Japanese, which might also serve to point an argument in the discussion of the international copyright question, is afforded by certain Japanese publications which have been exhibited to the prominent officers of the state department. It appears that when the study of English was made compulsory in Japan, a number of American school books were imported, and by formal order made the text book of the native schools.

American bookmakers had quite a lucrative trade for a time. But the Japanese soon turned their attention to the subject, and after a few experiments began turning out very clever reprints of the American publications of such excellence and in such quantities that the demand for the American product has now practically ceased. The only inferiority of the Japanese books noticeable at a casual examination is in the illustrations, and this is accounted for by the fact that the native engravers have not yet discovered the art of cutting their pictures on the grain of the block, but uniformly engrave on the side, which results in a slightly blurred picture.

Congressman Grosvenor Interviewed.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, in an interview here today, declares that Governor Foraker and John Sherman are warm friends and are working together in perfect accord. He believes the Ohio delegation will be solid for Sherman in the next republican convention. Mr. Grosvenor doesn't think Mr. Cleveland was actuated by a desire to make political capital when he issued that battle-flag order. The president's motive was good but he failed to appreciate the sentiment involved, and the flag incident was bound to do him much harm. Referring to the talk of Mr. Lamar's appointment to the supreme bench, Mr. Grosvenor said: "I like Lamar. If I had to look over Mr. Cleveland's cabinet for a man to do honor to it, I should select Lamar above all the rest. He fascinates you. If you know him, you must like him. But to appoint him to the supreme bench to construe the constitution and decide on the legislation of congress will do Mr. Cleveland great political harm."

JAKE SHARP GUILTY.

The Jury Convicts the Man Who Spent $500,000 in Bribes.

NEW YORK, July 1.—Judge Barrett's charge to the jury in the Sharp case was not concluded till late yesterday afternoon. Those who heard it knew it was virtually an instruction to find the "boss briber" guilty. The jury retired, and were out thirteen minutes. But one ballot was taken. A verdict of guilty was found, with a recommendation to mercy. The aged prisoner's head dropped. He was removed to Ludlow-street jail. Sentence will be passed July 13. The penalty is not more than ten years at hard labor, or a fine of $5,000, or both. A new trial will be asked. Jacob Sharp's crime was bribing a ring of adobe in the board of 1884 to railroad the franchise for the Broadway street railroad over other competitors. The bribe money aggregated $500,000. For receiving the bribe several aldermen are already in Sing Sing, serving out ten-year sentences, others are still awaiting trial, and a number are in Canada or Europe.

As the prisoner sat in a large easy chair in the warden's office this morning he appeared to be in deep thought. He looked paler than yesterday, but quiet and outwardly gave no sign that he is greatly disturbed by the thought that the sentence, which he will receive, will more than likely prove a life sentence. His wife sat beside him concealing her grief as best she could. When Sharp reached the jail last night, he went at once to the quarters assigned him, where he was joined by his wife. At 10:30 Warden Keating's guest moaned and tossed about until morning. He arose at 7:30 and took a light breakfast, consisting of a glass of milk and two pan cakes. He ate without relish, though, as a man who does it from necessity. Mrs. Sharp did not close her eyes during the long weary night, and looked sick with fatigue. Mr. Sharp has little conversation with her or anyone in particular, every precaution having been taken to make sure of the safety of the prisoner. One keeper remains on duty in the office all night, and two in the corridors of the jail, while the warden occupies a room adjoining Sharp's with the door wide open. Up to noon to-day Sharp had no visitors and had not spoken a dozen words. Warden Keating says he eats scarcely anything and only seems to relish the milk he drinks.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The Resolutions Adopted at the Prohibition Convention at Delaware, Ohio.

DELAWARE, O., July 1.—Over seven hundred delegates and alternates were present when the Prohibition convention opened, filling the body of the opera house and overflowing into the gallery. Wild enthusiasm arose when amid the opening songs of the convention, and by Professor Hudson, of Alliance, some one pinned on the great banner at the back of the stage a copy, in big red letters on brown wrapping paper, of the fourth commandment with this addendum: "Abrogated May 14, 1884, by the Ohio general assembly." The addendum was greeted with cries of shame.

Public poll of the convention showed present of delegates and alternates: One hundred and forty-seven ministers, thirty physicians, nineteen lawyers, forty-four teachers, 151 ex-soldiers and sailors, 151 ex-Democrats and 266 farmers. The 151 ex-soldiers and sailors were greeted with great applause as they rose to be counted.

John T. Moore, the Jackson lawyer, upon taking the chair as permanent chairman, aroused the house by saying that he never before saw a convention in which everybody, man, woman and child, was wide awake and duly sober.

Resolutions were adopted arraigning the saloon as a public enemy and pointing out that Knights of Labor banish liquor dealers from their circles; that the churches are opposed to license and taxation; because they provide for the continuance of the saloon and gives no protection against its ravages.

Other resolutions declared the need of executive enforcement of the prohibitory law, and that the old parties will enact such legislation only as liquor dealers will consent to; denouncing the last legislature; endorsing the W. C. T. U., local option and Sunday observance laws; condemning the Dow law; favoring labor bureaus of arbitration; postal savings banks; a reservation of public lands for actual settlers; the prohibition of importing pauper labor and employing child labor.

The next resolution invited the Labor party to unite with the Prohibition party in the destruction of the saloon and the overthrow of Anarchism. Then came a series which endorsed civil service reform, denounced the frauds of the Michigan amendment vote, opposed any "sudden and violent changes in the tariff," and "sectional animosity between the north and south." The eleventh declares "that the welfare of the community and the law of God require a further safeguard for the civil and Christian Sabbath not inconsistent with the rights of those who observe the seventh day, and for the protection of virtue and the purity of the family." The twelfth demands a temperance education in the schools, supported in whole or in part by the state funds.

Woman suffrage was dismissed with a promise for a constitutional amendment. Further safe guards demanded for Sunday observance. Temperance instruction in schools is commended. And the platform concluded with appealing the cause to God.

PAUPER IMMIGRATION.

MR. POWDERLY SAYS THE QUESTION MUST SOON BE MET.

He Also Has Something to Say on the Subject of Child Labor—More Pinkerton Men For the Coke Regions—The Hall Safe and Lock Strike Ended—Notes.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—General Master Workman Powderly yesterday detailed facts concerning child labor gleaned from his long residence in the coal regions. He showed how the children whose education was neglected as they grew into manhood would naturally gravitate into the Knights of Labor, illiterate, ignorant, and devoid of intelligence. "These are the men," he continued, "that the Knights of Labor have to deal with, and if possible lead to something better. Men who can't read, when charges of corruption are made, can be led hither and thither by any one who may be an enemy of the official simply because they can not add up a column of figures."

"The ignorance of many of the knights is what causes much of the trouble in locals, but it does not end here. It makes the men tools of the unscrupulous demagogues and places them under influences that bring about a state of affairs worse than anarchy. But there is another question that the American people must take up that greatly concerns the workingman. It is or will become the burning question of the day—an issue which will excel all others in importance—and that question is the problem of the great unceasing flood of emigration. I am utterly opposed to all forms of pauper emigration and to a great deal of emigration pure and simple. I think a halt should be called on emigration until this nation can consider what it is doing in allowing these nationalities to enter here and become burden on our country. As a ruling to decide who should be excluded I would make it an almost inflexible rule that a man or woman who could not sustain himself or herself and family for one year should not be allowed to land."

Mr. Powderly refused to say anything concerning the statements that Dr. McGlynn intends to join the Knights of Labor. The position of the general board would probably prevent such an addition to their membership. Mr. Powderly and all conservative knights are opposed of using the order to further any socialistic, communistic or land theories. They hold, as has been clearly evident in recent utterings by Mr. Powderly, that the mission of the Knights of Labor is to legislate for the interests of the average common sense American workmen free from all social revolutionary ideas. While Dr. McGlynn will not be refused admittance it is clearly understood that if he should attempt to raise a party within a party the general board would speak and act with decision.

Will Take Legal Measures.

BALTIMORE, July 1.—Three weeks ago, two detectives and a police sergeant entered the residence of Ernst Bauer for the purpose, as they claimed, of making a sanitary inspection. Mr. Bauer claims that the police ransacked the house from top to bottom. The German Central Labor union took the matter up and were seconded by the Federation of Labor. A committee waited on the board of police commissioners on Monday last with regard to the trouble, but that body upheld the police, and said that such men as Bauer (he is a Socialist) need watching. The Federation of Labor have now determined to push the matter to the end, and are employing the best legal talent to ascertain the constitutionality of the action of Marshal Frey and his police.

Safe and Lock Strike Settled.

CINCINNATI, July 1.—The strike at the Hall's Safe and Lock company has been settled by the allowance of 13 1-2 per cent. increase in wages and a continuation of the ten hour system. The 750 employees of the factory have been out for five weeks, and are glad to return to work. Said Mr. Hall: "Our employees' weekly pay roll amounts to $3,000, so that the men have lost $43,000 by the strike. We had a great many orders on hand, but have not been affected as much by the strike as one would suppose. The best feeling prevails between us."

More Pinkerton Men for the Coke Region.

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—Unknown, save to a few, Attorney General Kirkpatrick slipped into Pitt's yesterday, and after a conference with the coke syndicate, left for the coke regions to take a personal survey and ascertain the exact necessity for the appointment of more coal and iron police. It is learned to-day that 100 Pinkerton men are now in Pittsburgh awaiting orders. With the advent of police, especially Pinkerton's men, the situation in the coke regions may be regarded with grave apprehension.

Carpenters Quit.

PITTSBURGH, July 1.—Sixteen carpenters, employed at the shops of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railway, in Allegheny City, have quit work, and a sympathetic strike of the five hundred other employees is threatened. The trouble originated in the building of special freight cars, in which much extra labor was needed and for which the company would not pay the wages demanded by the carpenters.

Struck Against a Non-Union Man.

ROCHESTER, Pa., July 1.—The employees of the paint glass bottle works struck yesterday because the firm employed a non-union man. The factory has closed down indefinitely.

Trial of a Celebrated Murder Case.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 30.—The famous church murder case came up for trial here yesterday. Seven men are indicted for killing Chris. Lee on May 1, 1886. Among them are the best known negroes in the city, and all are church members. Reuben Bright and others barricaded themselves in Bethel church and refused to allow the duly appointed pastor to preach in the building. On the night of May 1 the pastor and a sheriff's posse tried to forcibly enter the church, which was barricaded by armed negroes. When the doors were battered down a volley was fired into the attacking party, wounding two negroes. A second volley was fired, and Chris. Lee fell dead. The sheriff then surrounded the church and captured the negroes.

THE FIDELITY FAILURE.

Mr. Trenholm Goes to Washington and the New Receiver Takes Charge.

CINCINNATI, O., July 1.—Last evening United States Comptroller Trenholm left for Washington, being accompanied by the register of the treasury, Judge McCue. The gentlemen have concluded their labors for the present. Mr. Trenholm says: "We have turned $1,200,000 in cash into the United States treasury here and there are between $150,000 and $200,000 more to turn over soon. A portion of this belongs to outside parties, as it has been taken in on notes lodged with the Fidelity for collection before the failure. Of course this part will have to go to those to whom it belongs, but the greater part of this sum will go to the creditors. Money will be deposited in the treasury here from day to day as fast as it is collected, and that no more failures need be expected among banks here."

Receiver Armstrong has taken charge. The conflict of authority between Sheriff Schott and the United States authorities has been satisfactorily arranged. It has been developed that the bank has a number of creditors in the south. E. W. Kitzbridge has been retained as the receiver's attorney. About the jail everything is quiet, and visitors are less numerous.

This morning United States Commissioner Hooper raised Mr. Harper's bond to $300,000 and Ben. Hopkins' to $100,000. This was done as a matter of precaution and as new evidence of fraud by the prisoners has been discovered.

It transpires now that Mr. Harper did not hypothecate any of the collaterals there had been deposited in the bank as security for called loans. The supposition heretofore has been that these collaterals had been hypothecated. It also appears that Mr. Harper had hope until the very last that he would be able to get the bank through the difficulty, and as late as Monday he proposed to Briggs Swift to enter into an agreement with W. H. Chatfield, the director, whereby each should form a fund of $500,000 to tide over the trouble, each of the three officials to put in $200,000. On Saturday Harper received $30,000 in New York drafts, which he deposited in the bank, and this all is pointed to as a proof that he had faith that everything would come out all right, for had he been disposed he could have had the drafts cashed and put the money in his pocket.

Trouble in the Militia.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 1.—The trouble in the Bullene Guards, of this city, which began at the National drill in Washington, when the Kansas City boys were refused the privileges of competing, because of the absence of their officers, will result in the disbandment of the crack company of this city. The officers are exceedingly bitter towards one another and the men are very angry with the officers. Last night Capt. Kelly was requested by twenty-two men to resign, but Col. Moore, of the regiment, who was present, declared that all signs of the petition would be dismissed unless they withdrew their names. Three refused and to-day were placed under nominal military arrest and will be court-martialed.

Terrific Gas Explosion.

RUTLAND, Vt., July 1.—A terrific gas explosion took place this morning in the millinery store of Mary E. Sullivan on Merchants' Row. She went to the store and lit a lamp when the explosion occurred, blowing the windows down and the goods into the street. The lady was unconscious at 10:30 a. m. A large plate glass and other windows on both sides of the street, seven in all, were blown out. The interior of the Rutland county bank was badly damaged. The locks of front doors of stores not opened were blown off and found 100 feet away. Several persons in the streets were thrown down, and one person was badly cut by flying glass. The damage is large.

George Jekel Acquitted.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 1.—George Jekel, charged with the murder of Bessie Aldrich Sunday night, had another preliminary hearing at Jeffersonville this morning, and, to the great surprise of many, was acquitted. Dr. W. D. Fouts, attending physician on the dead girl, in his testimony believed Jekel was innocent, but could not state definitely the cause of the girl's death, whether at her own hands or at the hands of her lover. The court at any rate gave the prisoner the benefit of the doubt and he was released upon this testimony. The parents of the girl believe also that the boy was innocent and think their daughter committed suicide.

Praying for Rain.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., July 1.—Farmers in this section of country are in desperate straits for lack of rain, and at Cambridge, thirty miles southeast of here, yesterday morning, special services were held in the churches for the purpose of offering up prayers for rain. Unless relief comes shortly this meeting at Cambridge will stand simply as the first of a long series of prayer meetings for rain, not only in northwestern Illinois, but throughout a large area of neighboring states.

Prodigious Rainfall.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—There was a severe thunderstorm accompanied by an unusually heavy rainfall here yesterday afternoon. Streets and sidewalks throughout the city were submerged and stores on Camp St. Charles, Canal and other streets had their floors covered with water. The signal service officer reports the rainfall from 9 p. m. to 4 p. m. as four and a half inches, and the total rainfall from 1:40 p. m. to 8 p. m. as five inches.

Have Come to an Understanding.

LIMA, O., July 1.—The producers in the Lima, North Baltimore, and Findlay oil district and the Standard Oil company have arrived at an understanding. The Standard claims that it cannot refine the Lima oil. Independent refiners say they have no difficulty in refining it. The agreement is that no more wells shall be shot or drilled for nine months, and the Standard at that time takes all the oil in tanks at present prices.

Two at a Time Twice.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 1.—Mrs. Albert Tussell yesterday gave premature birth to four female infants, two at one time and two half an hour later. One was born dead, another lived a few seconds and two lived fifteen minutes. They were in the sixth month of gestation and perfectly formed.

CITIZENS from Elliott and Morgan counties report that the Tollivers are without any strength outside of their immediate families.

Now that Craig Tolliver has been disposed of the only Americans in rebellion are the thirty Apaches, "Loosh" Fairchild, M. Halstead and the Iowa Kuklux.—Chicago Herald.

It is reported that New York would go for Cleveland to-day, as against Hill, or any other Democrat. The report comes from a Congressman who has been in that State lately, and talked with the politicians.

CONGRESSMAN TAULBEE has had a talk with the real estate, lumber and railroad men of New York, and they all say that the Paris, Georgetown and Frankfort Railroad is sure to be built. Of course, they ought to know.

E. O. WALLINGFORD bought a house and lot in Flemingsburg a little more than a year ago for $1,301. The same property sold last Monday for $350. Evidently, Flemingsburg needs a gas well, a railroad or something else to give her a boom.

The people of the mountain counties are said to be enthusiastic for the proposed Louisville, Cincinnati & Virginia Railroad. Preliminary arrangements have been made in Lee and Estill to submit to the voters of each county a proposition to subscribe $50,000 to the enterprise.

D. B. LOGAN, who is running things in Rowan County now, "declares that he has a case against Taylor Young, Sen., as well as his sons. He says that Mr. Young has all along been demanding an investigation upon a specific charge and Mr. Logan will now offer him one with confident expectation of proving the charge."

Public Meeting at Morehead.

The public meeting at Morehead Wednesday was attended by about 500 of the best citizens of Rowan County. The crowd was addressed by D. B. Logan, leader of the Sheriff's posse, in which he was very plain in expressing the feeling existing against all men violating the law. Address was also made by Dr. O'Mahoney, of Lexington, which was heartily endorsed by all. Greene Nickels, a Rowan County lawyer, also addressed the crowd. The resolutions adopted were the same as heretofore mentioned. All is quiet in Rowan. There was also an article signed by all parties that attended the meeting to help protect the citizens, and about $70 was made up for the benefit of Dolph Madden, the man wounded in the late trouble.

In speaking of the meeting the correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice, the three or four hundred men, without distinction of party, heartily indorsing them. In the course of his speech D. B. Logan earnestly advised every body to make friends with his neighbor if they were not friendly, and not to take to the brush and shooting for a trifling cause, nor for any cause. He made the meeting pledge him to hunt to the death, if necessary, any man who should wreak vengeance upon any of those engaged in the war of June 21st. At the conclusion of the speaking the papers on which were written the resolutions were passed around among the audience and nearly three hundred signatures were obtained.

"Some of the men signing the said articles of agreement were white-haired old men, who had not been to town for nearly a year. The day was observed as a sort of a jubilee. Logan retained a firm grip with his volunteer police on the order of the city, and he controlled the whisky traffic with a firm hand and unbending will. The ladies came in from the country on horseback and went shopping with a freedom and safety from affront that they had not known in years. The merchants, in consequence, are doing a rushing business.

"Indeed, these gentlemen are now hopeful that Morehead will have a boom, and with peace secured become what she once promised to be—the most promising town between Lexington and Huntington."

Prohibition in Fleming.

A few weeks ago it was announced that the liquor men in Fleming had found a way by which they would be enabled to beat the prohibition law. Their plan was to import the liquor from foreign countries, and sell it in the original packages. They were told that the Government guaranteed this privilege to all importers, in local option towns and everywhere else. It seems, however, that they are doomed to disappointment. In answer to a communication from a Memphis firm, Secretary Fairchild has written that the Treasury Department, under its rules, cannot undertake to decide the question submitted as to whether wines and liquors imported from foreign countries into Maine, can, after the payment of duty, be withdrawn from the custom-house and sold in original packages in that State, under the protection of the Treasury Department.

The Times-Democrat in speaking of the matter says: "In the first place it was absurd to believe that the law would give importers any special privileges not guaranteed to home manufacturers, and in the next place the law does not guarantee to any man exemptions from the police regulations of the section in which he lives."

Craig Tolliver and Rev. Barnes.

Col. John H. Moore, of Clark County, has devoted his life for years to religious matters, and for a long time accompanied Mr. Barnes in his tours, and did very much to advance his efforts. Mr. Moore met Craig Tolliver a few days before his death, and had a long conference with him about religious matters. In this conversation Tolliver expressed considerable interest and accepted thankfully a bible and some religious books that Mr. Moore gave him. Mr. Moore proposed to have a protracted preaching in Morehead, and asked Tolliver if he would take any interest in it. Tolliver replied quite earnestly that he would do so, and in answer to a question from Mr. Moore as to what preacher he would prefer said he wanted George O. Barnes and that if Mr. Moore would send him and his family there, he would take pleasure in entertaining them at his house. Mr. Moore thinks there were more good qualities in Tolliver than he ever got credit for.—Lexington Transcript.

G. M. D.

Walking down Broadway is very pleasant when you feel well, and T—K— never felt better than when his friend asked him how he got over that severe cough of his so speedily. "Ah, my boy," said T—, "G. M. D. did it!" And his friend wondered what G. M. D. meant. He knew it did not mean a good many doctors, for T—K—had tried a dozen in vain. "I have it," said he, just hitting the nail on the head, "you mean Dr. Pierce's 'Golden Medical Discovery,' or Gold Medal Deserved, as my friend J—S— always dubs it." Sold by druggists.

JAY GOULD is one of the few individuals of the country who can have his check for $4,500,000 cashed.

We accidentally overheard the following dialogue on the streets yesterday:

Jones—Smith, why don't you stop that disgusting hawking and spitting?

Smith—How can I? You know I am a martyr to catarrh.

J.—Do as I did. I had the disease in its worst form but I am well now.

S.—What did you do for it?

J.—I used Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It cured me and it will cure you.

S.—I've heard of it, and by Jove, I'll try it.

J.—Do so. You'll find it at all the drug stores in town.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

LOVE'S DESERTED PALACE.

Regard it well, 'tis yet a lovely place,
Palace of love, once warmed with sacred fires,
And loud from end to end with joy of lyres,
Fragrant with incense, with great lights ablaze.
The fires are dead now; dead the festive rays;
No more the music marries keen desires,
No more the incense of the shrine aspires,
And of love's godhead there is now no trace.
Yet if one walked at night through those dim halls
Might it not chance that ghostly shapes would rise,
And ghostly lights glide glimmering down the walls,
That there might be a stir, a sound of sighs,
And gentle voices answering gentle calls,
And gently wandering waifs of melodies?
—Philip Bourke Marston.

TRAINING HANDS AND HEAD.

What is Being Accomplished Among the Youths of Hampton Institute.

These negro and Indian youths come with no good background to exercise its unconscious but most potent influence in shaping their lives—rather the reverse is true. This whole life must be reformatory, an uplifting out of dark and undesirable conditions and tendencies. There must be reform, not for conscious misdoing, but for circumstancing, of misfortune, and not of fault. Gen. Armstrong's pupils are up at 5:30 in the morning, put in ten solid hours of work, manual and with books, and go to bed at 9:30. Each hour has its duty, its occupation, or its responsibility—and the vast machine is distinctly a success.

As the negroes and Indians work side by side on the farm and in the shops their natural traits are conspicuously illustrated. The Indian is the quicker, the more agile on a spur; but his black brother has vastly more staying power. The Indian has the more able and nimble legs, but the negro is better developed in the chest and arms—all because of very obvious reasons. Gen. Armstrong says his best students are those who work all day and have only two hours for study at night. The same thing made manhood more robust in the fine type of men who worked their way through college and are to-day rather impatient that all boys are not put to the school of adversity which they remember with pride.

Work and an atmosphere of moral refinement are doing much for these picked representatives of the red and black, and it is interesting to discover that the day scholars—those who live outside the institution—do not turn out so well. One side of their life lets them down too much.

The home farm employs thirteen students all day, with a detail of forty-five who average one and a half days a week; its products are ten acres of early peas, ten of Irish potatoes, ninety of sweet potatoes, fifteen of oats, two of cabbage and onions, two of spinach and kale; forty-four acres are seeded to clover, 166 to corn fodder, forty-six to rye, and 110 acres are under cultivation in garden and orchard. The Hemenway farm, about five miles distant, has 112 acres in corn, forty-three in wheat, 106 in oats, eighty in clover and 200 in pasture.

The Huntington industrial works—saw mill and wood working shop—where 15,000,000 feet of pine, poplar and oak, brought in rafts through the canal of the Dismal swamp from the forests of North Carolina and Virginia, have been worked up in the year; the department of household work, the caring for this great family of 600, which offers a field for training that housewives will appreciate; the dressmaking and tailoring departments, where uniforms, dresses and shirts are made; the printing office and bindery, which has created a demand for colored printers that cannot be supplied—and where four years are required for mastering the art of bookmaking; the knitting room with its Lamb knitters, that afford means of self support, and stimulate the quickness that piece work always begets; the engineer's department, the Indian training shops, eight in all, giving instructions in as many trades—wood working, carving, carpentering, harness making, shoemaking, tinsmithing, painting and blacksmithing, the greenhouse and the garden—these all attract and instruct the visitor.—Cor. Springfield Republican.

Fight to a Finish Arranged.

BOSTON, July 1.—Jack McAuliffe and Jim Carney met by appointment at the Globe office this morning. After an hour's talk they signed articles to fight to a finish with skin gloves for $2,500 a side, open to $5,000 a side between the first and sixth days of October, 1887, the fight to take place within 800 miles of Boston. Each man shall be restricted to weighing 133 pounds eight hours previous to entering the ring. Forfeit of $500 a side was posted. Al. Smith, of New York, was selected final stakeholder. Carney sails for England this afternoon, but will return early in September. The match creates general satisfaction in sporting circles.

Cyrus Field Nearly Bankrupted.

NEW YORK, July 1.—It is beginning to leak out that Cyrus W. Field narrowly escaped bankruptcy in the past few days. His losses on Manhattan Elevated stock amount, it is said, to $2,000,000. There seems to have been a conspiracy on the part of Jay Gould and Russell Sage to wreck Mr. Field, but whether from malice or to obtain control of Manhattan, or both, is a matter of conjecture.

Gambrell's Murderers Indicted.

JACKSON, Miss., July 1.—The grand jury in their report yesterday brought in true bills against Jones S. Hamilton and L. W. Eubanks for the murder of R. D. Gambrell, on May 5, at Jackson, Miss. The case of Albrecht, who was placed under bonds in the same connection, is now under consideration. Very probably, if the case is tried this term, a change of venue will be obtained.

Senator Sherman Talks.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—Senator Sherman, who arrived here last night from Ohio, in conversation with a United Press reporter said that his recent trip had no political significance whatever with reference to 1888. Upon the subject of the captured rebel flag the senator said: "I like the southern soldiers and am pleased to see them mingle with the people in the north. The flag should remain where they are, however. They were fairly won and there is no reason for their return. The president made a great blunder and probably now sees his action in that light."

Joined in Wedlock.

AKRON, O., July 1.—Anna Perkins Upson, daughter of Judge Upson of the circuit court, and a grandniece of the late Governor Tod, was married yesterday at her father's residence to Lieut. Gustave J. Fiebigler, assistant professor of military and civil engineering at West Point.

Most Excellent.

J. J. Atkins, Chief of Police, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "My family and I are beneficiaries of your most excellent medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; having found it to be all that you claim for it, desire to testify to its virtue. My friends to whom I have recommended it, praise it at every opportunity."

Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption is guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, Asthma, croup and every affection of throat, chest and lungs. Trial bottles free (Large size $1.00) at the Drug Stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Brace Up.

You are feeling depressed, your appetite is poor, you are bothered with headache, you are fidgety, nervous and generally out of sorts, and want to brace up. Brace up, but not with stimulants, spring medicines, or bitters, which have for their basis very cheap, bad whisky, and which stimulate you for an hour, and then leave you in worse condition than before. What you want is an alternative that will purify your blood, start healthy action of liver and kidneys, restore your vitality, and give renewed health and strength. Such a medicine you will find in Electric Bitters, and only 50 cents a bottle at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

Dr. Waite Skips.

The Daily Press, of Lexington, says that Dr. Waite, proprietor of the Katonka and Modoc Oil Shew, "has fled to parts unknown and climes warmer, where attachments are not and the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest; gone where the chipmunk chipeth and the whangdoodle whangeth. On Monday night, claiming to have received a telegram from somewhere, the dear departed had Mr. Bronston and Judge Jewell to give bond for his wearing apparel and then he silently stole away; not folding his tent, however, as the Sheriff had a warm attachment for the tent and did not wish to be parted from it. The doctor is said to have gone to Frankfort. He took some of his untamed Indians with him and left the others to mourn their unpaid board bills at Mrs. Morgan's on East Main."
